Dear Mr. Siri,

On behalf of the Attorney General, we are not opposed to a reasonable and orderly briefing schedule relative to Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction. As noted below, the State Defendants each have until November 14, 2022, to answer or otherwise respond to Plaintiffs' complaint. We propose for the Attorney General's response to Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction to be due one week later, i.e., on November 21, 2022.

Dr. Edney is in the process of engaging separate counsel and will not be represented by the Attorney General's Office in this matter. While I cannot speak for him, it appears that he would likewise be amenable to a November 21 response deadline in connection with Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction.

Briefing on Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment is premature at this juncture.

I am copying counsel of record for the other defendants.

Please let us know if the proposal above is agreeable.

Thanks,
Rex

Subject: RE: Bosarge et al. v. Edney et al., 1:22-cv-00233-HSO-BWR

Good afternoon, Mr. Shannon,

Contrary to our what I was told on the call yesterday with our process server, the process service company emailed us today to advise that, while the health department was served with all papers, the AG's office was only served with the summons. Given same, you were correct that your office was apparently only served with the summons. We asked the process server to prepare an amended affidavit of service which we will be filing to correct that mistake. Apologies on that score.

We have separately, as noted below, sent you all papers via overnight USPS and you should receive them today. That was done as to all defendants to avoid any service issues. That should resolve any question of service on the AG as to all papers. Given that your office has been aware of the motion since at least September 22, 2022, would your office be willing to enter into a briefing schedule on the pending motions?

If not, we will file a request for same with the Court.

Thank you,
Aaron
